

Percussion
Score:

PERCUSSION PERFORMANCE

Southern Plains Marching Festival

TECHNIQUE & EXCELLENCE

There is a lack of rhythmical accuracy and clarity among performers. There is little or no display of technique or uniformity. There is little or no communication of musicianship or artistry. Ensemble balance and blend are not achieved. There is no expression or dynamic variety.

Rhythmical accuracy and clarity are seldom achieved among performers. There is an occasional display of uniformity and understanding of technique. There is an inconsistent display of achievement in the communication of musical artistry. Ensemble balance and blend are rarely achieved. The range of expression and dynamic variety is very limited.

Rhythmical accuracy and clarity are achieved through most of the performance among performers. Most performers display uniformity and understanding of technique. Performers display an average level of achievement in the communication of musicianship and artistry. Attempts for balance and blend are evident but inconsistent. Expressive elements and dynamics are evident but sometimes lacking.

Rhythmical accuracy and clarity are achieved through the performance. Almost all performers display uniformity and understanding of technique. Performers display a high level in the communication of musicianship and artistry. Proper balance and blend is achieved. Lapses are infrequent and minor. Expressive elements and dynamics are utilized to a fairly high degree. Lapses are infrequent and minor.

Rhythmical accuracy and clarity is exemplary through the performance. All performers display uniformity and understanding of technique. Performers display superior achievement in the communication of musicianship and artistry. There is outstanding achievement of proper balance and blend by the entire percussion section. Expressive elements and dynamics are utilized to a very high degree.

TECHNIQUE & EXCELLENCE

"IV" Poor
Rarely
1-29

"III" Average
Infrequently
30-49

"II" Excellent
Sometimes
50-69

"I" Superior
Usually 70-89

"I+"
Consistently
90-100